

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: Corey A Askew v Department of Corrections
Docket No. 282916
L. Ct. No. 07-004591-AH

Henry William Saad, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The motion to waive fees is DENIED since MCL 600.2963 requires the payment of an initial, partial filing fee if a prisoner under the supervision of the Department of Corrections files a civil action with this Court. Plaintiff, however, is not required to pay an initial, partial filing fee in this case due to an inability to pay.

Within 21 days of the certification of this order, plaintiff shall a copy of this order and shall refile the pleadings that are being returned with this order if he wants the delayed application for leave to appeal to go forward. By doing so, plaintiff becomes responsible for paying the $375 entry fee, and he may not file another civil appeal or original action in this Court until such time that either the Department of Corrections remits or he pays the entire outstanding balance due. Failure to comply with this order shall result in this Court not accepting the delayed application for leave to appeal for filing.

If plaintiff refiles the pleadings within the time allotted, he shall make monthly payments to the Department of Corrections in an amount of 50 percent of the deposits made to his account until the payments equal the balance due of $375. The Department shall then send the money to this Court. Again, plaintiff may not file either an original action or a civil appeal in this Court until he pays the entire outstanding balance due.

The Clerk of this Court shall furnish two copies of this order to plaintiff and return his pleadings with this order
